Mrs.
Solange Berstein Jáuregui
President
Commission for the Financial Market

To whom it may concern:

In compliance with the provisions of articles 9 and 10, second paragraph, of the Securities Market Law and the General Rules No. 30 and 364 of this Commission, and being duly authorized, I hereby inform you as an essential fact that in an extraordinary board meeting held on Tuesday, August 16, 2022, Mr. Julio Aranis Vargas resigned from his position as Chief Executive Officer of Empresa Nacional del Petróleo.

The resignation, which is due to strictly personal reasons, will be effective as of August 19, 2022.

Mr. Aranis thanked the Board of Directors for the trust placed in him, as well as ENAP's collaborators for the commitment shown during his time in office.

The board thanked Mr. Aranis for his management during these months and agreed to appoint, on an interim basis, Mr. Patricio Farfán Bórquez, currently Deputy Chief Executive Officer, who is the Corporate Manager of Refineries.

In compliance with the aforementioned rules, we make this information available to the market.

Sincerely,

Gloria Maldonado Figueroa
Chairwoman
“Empresa Nacional del
Petróleo”
