

ENAP

José Gómez Meza

CORPORATE MANAGEMENT OF ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE

Industrial civil engineer and economist from Pontificia Universidad Católica, with more than twenty years of experience in team and project leadership in the Health and Public Finance sectors. He has extensive experience in public financing projects, with the capacity to generate public-private alliances in the health and public works sectors, as well as knowledge of developing and modernizing public companies. Before joining ENAP, he was the head of the Public Finance Division of the Ministry of Finance. Since November 2022, he has been the company's Corporate Manager of Administration and Finance.