

ENAP

Nolberto Díaz Sánchez

DIRECTOR

Social Assistant at Universidad Católica de Valparaíso. He is currently the Vice President of the Workers' Union of ENAP Aconcagua Refinery. Trained at the Salesian School of Punta Arenas, he historically stood out among his peers as a great leader since his adolescence where he was leader of the Federation of Secondary Students of that city. Based for more than two decades in the Fifth Region, he was President of the Students Federation of Universidad Católica de Valparaíso, standing out in his fight against the dictatorship. He also was the General Secretary of Central Unitaria de Trabajadores (CUT). With more than 25 years of experience at ENAP, he was the Director of ENAP Magallanes between 1998 and 2000. For ten years he was President of the Workers' Union of ENAP Aconcagua Refinery, and later five years President of Federación Nacional de Trabajadores del Petróleo y Afines de Chile (FENATRAPECH). Since April 2023, he has been the company's labor director.