

ENAP

Gloria Maldonado Figueroa

CHAIRWOMAN OF ENAP'S
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Chemical Engineer and Master in Engineering Sciences, with more than 25 years of experience in management, both in the public and private sector, in areas such as innovation, technology transfer, market intelligence processes and investment attraction, technological benchmarking, project evaluation, process improvement, and resource savings. She currently is a member of the Strategic Council of Incubadora Chrysalis, of the Board of Directors of Hubtec Chile, and advisor to the Global Engineering and Energy Advisory Council of the G100. She served as CEO of the subsidiary of Enel Italia and the French Naval Group, Energía Marina S.A. She has been the Executive Director of tres Technology Centers (CEMP, CTeC, and MERIC). For nine years she was Deputy Director of the Innovation Agency of Corfo, InnovaChile. Previously, she led as International Environmental Manager for the ten countries of the FUNDES Network.