

ENAP

Consuelo Raby Guarda

Director

A graduate of the Pontifical Catholic University of Chile with a law degree, she also holds a Master of Laws from Duke University in the United States. She has extensive experience in corporate law, litigation, capital markets, project development, regulatory matters, and public contracts. She has held various positions in public and private companies, including director at Grupo Security, Innergy, and Norgas; president of Empresa Portuaria Talcahuano San Vicente (2018-2022); and legal manager at Parque Arauco. She served on the Board of Directors of ENAP from January 2021 to April 2022.