

ENAP

Rodrigo Manubens Moltedo

Rodrigo Manubens studied Business at Universidad Federico Santa María, and he has a Master of Science from the London School of Economics & Political Science as well as a specialization in corporate governance from Harvard Business School.

He was director of Banco de Chile from 2001 to 2019 and for 11 years he was the general manager of the financial institution's holding company. He has been a director of different banks, including Banco de A. Edwards, Banco O'Higgins and Banco Santiago. For nearly 10 years he was a member of the board at ENDESA Chile and, since 2013, he has been the director of the Santiago Stock Exchange.